EMBARRASSED IN BUSINESS.

HEAVY FAILURE IN THE TOBACCO TRADE-SEIDEN-BERG & CO. SUSPEND BUSINESS WITH LIABILI-TIES OF $500,000-OTHER FAILURES.

The announcement was made yesterday of the failure of Seidenberg & Co., manufacturers of cigars and importers of leaf tobacco at Reade and Church-sts, and at Key West, Fia. They were the largest manufacturers of cigars in the country and their credit was unlimited. Joseph Siedenberg, Samuel Seidenberg and Samuel Wolf, who comprise the firms of Seidenberg & Co., and S. Wolf & Co., of Key West, made an assignment yesterday to Julius Bunzl, giving preferences amounting to $97,055, including B. Ballin, $6.283 55; S. Fuguet Sons, $16,586 91; M. Seidenberg's Sons, $26,634 91; North River Bank, $9,258 33; Importers and Traders' National Bank $3,660 50, and & Sons, $16,586 91; M. Seidenberg's Sons, $26,634 91; North River Bank, $9,258 33; Importers and Traders' National Bank $3,660 50, and Alonzo Fullett $20,000. The firm was established in 1869. It claimed a capital of $400,000 in 1876, which was somewhat increased since then. It imported all its leaf directly from Havana and manufactured exclusively at Key West, its salesrooms being in this city. Eight hundred hands were employed at the Key West factory, Simou Wolf managing the business there. Leopold Wolf was admitted to an interest in the firm January 1, 1878. The liabilities are reported at $500,000, the assets consisting of real estate, merchandise, machinery, open accounts and brills receivable. It is thought that the firm may be able to settle in full. In the trade the failure was a surprise, as there was no intimation of any special tromble, and the firm had paid everything up to vesterday. It was stated that Havana leaf had been running so poor that it had brought down prices and hurt the quality, in consequence of which Connecticut and Ohio tobacco was purchased and shipped to Key West. The competition in taking good cigars here had depreciated Key West good, and, no doubt, but the trade. Seidenberg & Co. had purchased whole years' supplies of tobacco in Havana, and the crop of 1878 and 1879 had each turned out badly. Their purchases of the 1879 crop were considered an excellent barcain, and it is said that they could have sold out the entire lot immediately afterward at an advance of from $100,000 to $150,000. This lot, however, did not turn out as well as was expected, and a great many cigars came back on their hands. They were under heavy expenses for wages, taxes, etc. Mr. Seidenberg said vesterday that shrinkage in value, depreciation, and other causes compelled the assignment. He could not state the amount of the habilities accurately until the inventory had been made. He thought twoold he two weeks before a full statement could be presented to the creditors.

Their failure is attributed to loss of business on account of the heavy rains in the past two months in Mississippi and the inability to make collections. The liabilities are reported at $02,000, and the nominal assets at about the same ligure: it is thought that they will realize $75,000. Victor Brown expects to place a full statement before the New-York creditors in a few days. H. B. Claffin & Co. are probably the largest creditors here, their claim being reported at $9,000.

A. King Chandler, dealer in drygoods in Washington, is reported to have failed, with liabilities amounting to $50,000, nearly all of which is due to crediters in New-York.

PREPARING FOR THE WORLD'S FAIR.

A VISIT TO THE INWOOD SITE-MEETING OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. Several members of the Executive Committee of the United States International Commission accompanied a number of railroad and steamboat men on a visit to the Inwood site yesterday morning. The visit was made at the instance of the Committee on Transportation, and the party was composed of H. G. Stebbins, James Talcott, Governor Crawford and Thomas Rutter, of the Executive Committee; James H. Rutter, of the New-York Central Railroad; George R. Blanchard, of the New-York, Lake Eric and Western Railroad; General James McCrea, of the Pennsylvania Railroad; Walter Katte, of the New-York, Lake Ontario and Western Railroad; R. Cornell White, and representatives of Starin's Transportation Line and the People's Line to Albany. The party went on board a turn at the foot of West Twenty-third-st, at 9 o'clock in the morning, and after a pleasant run of half an hour landed near the grounds chosen for the World's Fair. Carriages were in waiting and the visitors were driven over the approaches and made a personal examination of the grounds. It is said that much satisfaction was expressed on all sides at the appearance and size of the grounds and at the means of access to them. The party returned to the city at 1 o'clocx.

The Executive Committee met at its rooms, No. 317 Broadway, at 3:30 p. m., with the expectation of receiving the railroad and steambout representatives, and gesting a formul expression of their coincions respecting the cligibility of the Inwood site. Owing to business engagements that awaited them on their return to the city, however, these representatives were unable to meet the committee, and a special meeting will probably be held Fraday afternoon for that purpose.

H. G. Stebbins, W. L. Strong, C. N. Bliss, R. G. Ralston, W. A. Cole, Lewis May, James Talcott and General Clinton B. Fisk were appointed a committee to confer with the Produce Exchange, the Cotton Exchange, the Stock Exchange and other commercial and mercantile bodies, with a view of securing their cooperation in the work of obtaining subscriptions to the capital stock of the proposed Fair. It was stated at the meeting that various railroad and transportation companies had under consideration the matter of subscribing for stock, and that as soon as their officers had conferred with their managing boards they would announce their subscriptions to the Committee on Transportation reported the morning's visit to Inwood, with the s H. A CONFUSION OF NUMBERS.

L. W. Seavey, of No. 22 West Washington-place. recently sent to President Morris a note asking that the street in which he lives be either changed to West Fifth-st.or renumbered beginning at Broadway. He adds:

On account of there being a No. 22 Washington-place which is near Broadway, many mistakes are made in the delivery of parcels from the various dry goods merchants, etc. We receive from five to fifteen calls daily from persons looking for No. 22 Washington-place. Telegrams and letters regularly come to our house intended for persons living at No. 22 Washington-place or No. 22 North Washington-square. We have had lots of ivy, bundles, and loaves of cake left with us. Recently Mr. Fucker, of No. 22 Washingten-place, called on me, saying that he had stood this same kind of annoyance for twelve years and asked me to see if I could not get the matter attended to by the authorities.

The appeal was deemed so reasonable that the way. He adda:

The appeal was deemed so reasonable that th Aldermen Tuesday decided that the entire street should be known as West Washington-place and numbered from Broadway.
